THE MORMONS.—A body of 500 Mormons have enlisted under Col. Kearney, for his Santa Fe and California expedition. They do this under a pledge from the government that protection shall be given to the emigrating Mormons, and grants of the use of any of the Indian lands they may select, until ready to cross the mountains. Those who remain have located on Grand Island, on the Platte river, and have made arrangements to move thither every indigent and infirm Mormon yet left in Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri. They enlist for twelve months, and when discharged California, are to retain their guns and ments. The Mormon population in county in February last, was about it is not probable now that more than —and yet the "Regulators," a pursuing them with untiring pers only them, but those who emplo
